

The traffic plan is in place and the city resources have been organized to assist with any movement of jersey barriers.

Our PLT teams have been in contact with Tom and his group this morning. Still sorting how the movement will work